INTRODUCTION:

The AA County Branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW) shares in the mission of its national group, founded in 1881, and holds as its primary mission the advancement of equity for women and girls through advocacy, education and research. As part of our local branch work, we offer the "Women to Women Awards Program" that provides several small educational awards to Anne Arundel County, MD women and girls to improve their access to careers through training, education and/or skills development.

The number of award recipients will be based on available funds.

- All award applicants must submit a timely and complete application.
- Applicants who are being considered for an award will be invited for a personal interview.
- Award amounts vary and are limited to a maximum of $1,500.
- AAUW will directly pay awards to the school/service provider in the name of the award winner.
- Award winners will be notified of the outcome through electronic mailing by Monday, May 1, 2018

Competitive award applicants must currently be accepted and enrolled in an educational/training program or academic institution and planning to attend Fall 2018
